

Hambledon - Loxhill - Dunsfold - Sidney Wood - Loxwood - Hog Wood - Tugley Wood 19 miles (31 km)

- 1 . Leave Hambledon West on Vann Lane
2. After about 1.5 miles just after you pass a sign post to Upper Vann and a sharp right bend, take the farm track on your left to Burgate Farm
3. Follow this track for about a mile until you come off it onto a quiet road, turn right, heading south.
4. Follow this road (Hookhouse Rd) into Dunsfold. In Dunsfold there is a pub (The Sun Inn and a village shop with a cafe.
5. Head south through Dunsfold passing the Cricket Green on your left, then turn left down Knightons Lane.
6. Follow Knightons Lane for about a mile and a half, then you will enter Sidney Wood.
7. Exit Sidney Wood at a small Lane and take the path just slightly to your right and opposite you (you are on the Wey-South path).
8. Head south on the Wey-South path, after about 2 miles you will start following the canal on your left.
9. Keep following the canal and eventually you will meet a main road with a pub, The Onslow Arms opposite. Take a rest, you will be turning round here.
10. Retrace your path back along the canal for a mile and a half and then take the small lane (Ifold Bridge Lane) on your left (this is shortly after the canal ends).
11. Follow this lane until it meets a busier road and turn right on to it. Follow the road round a couple of bends and head north into the wood.
12. Briefly follow the Sussex Border Path and then take a track through the woods on your left.
13. This track heads all the way through Hog Wood heading North West for about 2.5 miles until it emerges on Plaistow Road.
14. Turn left on Plaistow Rd and follow it for one third of a mile, then take the path on your right into the wood. This path winds through Tugley Wood until you reach a B road.
15. Turn right on this B road for half a mile until you see White Beech Lane on your left. Follow White Beech Lane down then up, then down again, and it will emerge on Vann Lane.
16. Turn right on Vann Lane and it will take you all the way back into Hambledon after a few twists and turns.¹
